ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS

Mayor Simpson Announced as Candidate for Re-election.

INTEREST IN MUNICIPAL CONTEST

Special Meeting of City Council Held Last Night.

LIVELY DISCUSSION

Evening Star Bureau, No. 727 King st. Bell telephone No. 106.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., March 10, 1899. The general impression that Mayor Geo. . Simpson would be a candidate for reelection this spring was verified this morn ing. The mayor stated to a Star reporter that he was still in the field and proposed to stand on the same platform on which his canvass two years ago was based and which has characterized his administration -support of law and order and the best nterests of the city and in opposition to political corruption, gambling and similar dements.

It has been currently rumored that ex-Mayor Luther H. Thompson would be a candidate. Mr. Thompson this morning, in conversation with a Star reporter, stated that he had never sought the nomination and would not do so under any circumstances. He would, however, accept it if offered by the people.

A great deal of interest is being manifested in the democratic primary, which will probably be held some time in April, as the selection of a candidate practically decides the issue at the May elections. The smallpox question has been one of such exceeding interest that it has thoroughly permeated local politics. Indeed, Mayor Simpson's opponents are principally relying upon this agitation, urging that the mayor's position has been reprehensible. As the smallpox scare is dying out, however, and excitement subsiding, business men and citizens generally are understood to be indersing Mayor Simpson's course in the matter. It is the general impression that Mayor Simpson will be renominated by a large majority.

Special Meeting of City Council. A called meeting of the city council was held last night. The principal, almost the sole, question considered was that of the city's finances in relation to the smallpox situation.

As stated in yesterday's Star, expenditures incurred in handling smallpox up to the first of this month aggregated more than $5,000, proving a heavy drain on the city treasury. It was, therefore, deemed necessary by the finance committee to recommend additional appropriations for meeting expenses in the various branches municipal government. The sum of $2,550 was appropriated, to be used between now and May 31 for regular expenses. The finance committee reported on the bills submitted by various doctors who were employed under the health department to conduct a reinspection and vaccination. It was recommended that the bills should be paid at one-half their face value, excepting the bill of Dr. Julian Miller, the health officer in which a greater reduction to the paid at the control of the paid at the paid

Legality and Obligation.

Warm discussion followed this reading, Mr. Green claiming that if the city owed the doctors anything, it owed them the stipulated amount. If it could be shown, he said, that they had been illegally contracted with, he was opposed to paying anything. He was opposed to paying anything. He urged, however, that this was not the case, and, moreover, that the charges were not exorbitant.

Mr. Birrell took a different view of the case. He claimed that the health officer had power to engage professional assistance only as appropriations for such were had power to engage professional assistance only as appropriations for such were made by council. He said, therefore, that the city was not legally bound to pay the of services rendered, it was a moral obliga-tion devolving upon council. He insisted that the bills should have been presented as claims, and favored the finance com-mittee's report. This was finally put to a vote, resulting-affirmative, 9; negative, 6.

To Diminish Expenses. Mr. Hubert Snowden, president of the common council, adressed the body, saying that he had heard much about paying bills already made, but little in regard to reducing what he considered the enormous drain upon the city treasury still going on. He to the word essay, saying his remarks could hoped that some member would offer a resolution to reduce expenses. Mr. Snow-den's speech created a stir, and Mr. Greene increased it by a resolution that the mayor be directed to pay no more bills after 12 o'clock last night in connection with small-pox. Mr. Smith suggested that all the grands detailed to watch small-process. guards detailed to watch smallpox-infected houses should be recalled. The resolution houses should be recalled. The resolution was voted down, only three supporting it.

Mr. Uhler called attention to the act of council, January 24, authorizing the mayor and health officer to take all necessary steps in eradicating smallpox. He said this blocked the proposed enactments.

The president then formulated a resolution which was adopted.

tion, which was adopted. It read, in effect, that the city auditor be directed to draw no more warrants for bills in connection with smallpox except for bills contracted under the resolution of January 24; that the mayor and health officer be requested to use the utmost economy in contracting future bills, and that all obligations so contracted shall be approved by Dr. Julian Miller, the health officer, and countersigned by Mayor Simpson.

The council than adjourned.

The council then adjourned.

Colored Troops Reach Home. A company of the 10th United States Colored Immunes, recruited from this city everal months ago, and recently mustered out of service at Macon, Ga., arrived here over the Pennsylvania road at 4 o'clock this morning, and were given a rousing reception. The troops were expected last night, and, notwithstanding the early hour of arrival, several hundred colored citizens of arrival, several hundred colored citizens were awaiting them at the depot. A strong squad of police was present, but there was little or no disorderly conduct. When the train reached the depot it was boarded by Dr. Julian Miller, the health officer, who, assisted by Dr. Howard, subjected the troops to a close examination for any symptems of contagious disease. The company then moved down King street, the men finally dispersing for their homes. Capt. Lincoln Republican League.

The Lincoln Republican League met, purmant to adjournment, at Banner Hall last night, with a large attendance. Magnus L. Robinson, the president, was in the chair, and Wm. C. Payne, secretary. David Middleton, the newly-elected chaplain, was present and accepted the duties. He said he hoped to pray this club to success. It he hoped to pray this club to success. It was a righteous cause and the prayers of the just would prevail.

The committee on the proposed municipal ticket reported progress and promised announcement of the Lincoln League ticket at the next business meeting.

The league accented the report of announcement of the Lincoln League ticket at the next business meeting. The league accepted the report of committee on headquarters taking the house 606 Gibbon street. It was decided to have a house warming Saturday, March 18, and a flag-raising will take place in the afternoon. The house will be fitted out with reading room, office rooms, etc. A committee was appointed, with Benj. Corum as chairman, to organize a woman's auxillary. Twenty-five names were added to the roll.

General and Personal. The remains of Mrs. Virginia P. Minnigerode, who died at her home in this city early yesterday morning, were forwarded to Middleburg today for interment. Private funeral services were conducted at the house early this morning. The board of fire wardens held its March meeting last night, at which only routine business was transacted. The result of the visit of Messrs. Wattles and Wood to New York city on fire department business will soon be made public.

In the police court this morning Mayor Simpson disposed of the following cases: Thomas Foley, charged with insubordination on the chain gang, put on a diet of bread and water; Thomas Gibson and Mary
